Afterglow
Carol Mirkel

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

In Loving Memory
of

Billy Bernstein

Your wide smile
and your engaging laugh will be sorely missed by all

Amazed Lonestar

Every time our eyes meet
This feeling inside me
Is almost more than I can take
Baby when you touch me
I can feel how much you love me
And it just blows me away
I've never been this close to anyone or anything
I can hear your thoughts
I can see your dreams

I don't know how you do what you do
I'm so in love with you, it just keeps getting better
I wanna spend the rest of my life with you by
my side
Forever and ever
Every little thing that you do
Baby I'm amazed by you

The smell of your skin
The taste of your kiss
The way you whisper in the dark
Your hair all around me, baby you surround me
You touch everyplace in my heart
Oh, it feels like the first time every time
I wanna spend the whole night in your eyes

I don't know how you do what you do
I'm so in love with you, it just keeps getting better
I wanna spend the rest of my life with you by
my side
Forever and ever
Every little thing that you do
Baby I'm amazed by you

Every little thing that you do
I'm so in love with you, it just keeps getting better
I wanna spend the rest of my life with you by
my side
Forever and ever
Every little thing that you do
Oh, every little thing that you do
Baby I'm amazed by you

Hard Times, Come Again No More Stephen Foster

Let us pause in life's pleasures
And count its many tears
While we all sip sorrow with the poor.
There's a song that will linger
Forever in our ears.
Oh hard times, come again no more.

'Tis a song, the sigh of the weary...
Hard times, hard times come again no more.
Many days you have lingered
Around my cabin door.
Oh hard times, come again no more.

Though we seek mirth and beauty
In spirits light and gay,
There are frail forms waiting at the door.
There's a song that will linger
Forever in our ears,
Oh hard times, come again no more.

'Tis a song, the sigh of the weary...
Hard times, hard times come again no more.
Many days you have lingered
Around my cabin door.
Oh hard times, come again no more.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul that's free?

Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we shared,
Miss me but let me go.

For this a journey that we all must take,
And all must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good
deeds,
Miss me but let me go.

Greetings Family and Friends;

It is by tragic event, that less than a year from the time we last came together for the joyful celebration of William and Rachael's joining together as one, that we must join so soon there after, to offer our support, and share in the sadness of this tragic event that separates their worldly bond. While this bond may be broken, through the fulfillment of their vows to one another, the blessing of everlasting memory is bestowed; and with this so deeply touching all of us whom have had the honor to know them, we come together today to say our final goodbyes, to William Daniel Bernstein, and to offer our support to his family.

It appears Billy understood, from a very early age, that Love is relatively inexpensive, and reasonably harmless.

From talking with those family members that knew Billy in his earliest days of life, his Mother Susan Bernstein, his Grandmothers Eleanor Bernstein and Sarah Crawford, and other Family members, and through many enjoyable visits with Bill and his wife Rachael, and through her recent feelings expressed to me, and though my own experiences over the past 17 years, when I have had the honor of his presence, I've been made aware of the Fact that Billy possessed a special heart, a special glow about him.

His Hebrew name Shalom, Meaning Peace, appeared to be the guiding force by which he lived.

He lived everyday, and in everyway he turned, and to everyone He touched, he displayed this inborn righteousness, advancing Peace.

In spirit and his actions toward all those he knew, everyone around him felt His true understanding of love, for through his every deed his heart of gold was exposed.

Not only did Billy excel in deed, but in mind, and society as well.

Bill attended the Pima Schools, was a member of the Boy Scouts of America, he was selected and initiated into the honorary camper society of The Order Of The Arrow.

At age 14 during his first year at Eastern Arizona College bill was Phi Beta Kappa, he graduated at age 17, receiving an AAS Diploma in Machine Technology.

And as many of you know, it was just this last February 22nd that he was wed to Rachael, the Daughter of Bruce Allen and Darlene Johnson, then in August Billy and Rachael were blessed with the birth of their beautiful daughter Raellie; whom we all know Billy adored.

It is an honor to have Billy's Grandmother, Eleanor Bernstein, here with us today, and Even a greater honor to have her recite the 23rd Psalms.

Billy was extremely rich in life, as attested by the number of family and friends here today.

As such I will delay no longer, in opening the services to provide the opportunity to any of Billy's Family first, then any of Billy's Friends, that would like the opportunity to talk of their special times with Billy, share their memories, or to offer music of remembrance.

ACTION = [sharing time]

Thank you Billy for your "Good thoughts, good words, good deeds" I will truly miss you, as will your family and friends.

ACTION = ["Play Amazed" while lowering casket]

In honor of Billy's love toward all, and their traditions, I would like to provide a moment for Billy's Maternal Family's tradition of reciting Kaddish. [cod-dish] , all that desire are invited to join in reciting the English version, or to observe a moment of silence.

And with this hand of earth we release our physical bond, you will always be in our memories.

A meal in Billy's honor will be offered at Eaton Hot Spring and all are invited over there to join in.
