

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

NO. CR 06-538 JH

MARY HELEN QUAINANCE,

Defendant.

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO APPOINT PUBLIC DEFENDER

John F. Robbenhaar, counsel for the Defendant, hereby moves this Court to appoint the Office of the Federal Public Defender to represent the Defendant in this matter, effective December 8, 2008. As grounds in support, counsel states that he will commence employment as an Assistant Federal Public Defender on December 8, 2008, and because no conflict exists, desires to continue representing the Defendant after that date in his capacity as an Assistant Federal Public Defender. The United States Attorney's Office, by and through Assistant United States Attorney Luis Martinez, does not oppose the relief requested.

WHEREFORE, for the above stated reasons, attorney John F. Robbenhaar requests that the Court appoint the Office of the Federal Public Defender to represent the Defendant in this case, effective December 8, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,
