
¹ The government has filed a superseding indictment [Doc. 65]. That indictment adds does not equate to an absence of a moral code. “Good Thoughts, Good Words, Good Deeds” is the Zoroastrian and COC creed. COC believes in family and helping those less fortunate.

MR. QUAI

15. The government cont

and a home. It is one of the places where members meet to engage in their religious practice. Like the Quakers, COC members meet in other members' homes rather than have grand edifices for religious purposes.

18. The government suggests that the presence of scales in the area including Mr. Quaintance's residence belies the claim that cannabis is used in sacramental practice (Respons

Respectfully Subm